DARING & ON FIRE DIVA

Here are a few tips to start dating again.

Communicate your vision, relationship goals, and intentions to your potential partner.

Allow time to reveal the truth.

Conduct boyfriend interviews before committing.

Commit to the relationship only if it is an absolute YES for both parties.

Determine when enough is enough and have the courage to walk away from the relationship if needs be.

Rebuild your trust and intimacy with yourself to prevent seeking validation from your partner.

Do not base your relationship on the possibility but rather on the actions of your partner and his LOVE.

Follow your guts.

Still have an affair with yourself to maintain your new found balance and intimacy.

Love, it is time to reclaim yourself. Yes, it is time to restore your true power.
